Treatment Plant Expected Ready For Use Sept. 1st

After years of planning and ten months of actual construction the first two systems of Belle Glade's sewerage system and treatment plant are expected to be placed into operation Sept. 1. The bottling plant, which covers most of the downtown and Negro areas of the city, was built at a cost of approximately $200,000 which will be paid for by revenue derived from use of the system.

A city referendum in 1957 approved a $11 million sewer bond issue which failed to get approval when ex-commissioner J. H. Livingston made such a motion as one of his last moves on the council. No reason was ever given as to why the council didn't act on the "voice of the people" straw vote. It was more than a year later before the bottled system was outlined and advertised and put out to construction companies. While the construction of only two systems was authorized, the city built a modern plant which will handle all the city's anticipated growth in the next ten years.

Consumer-wise about half of the city's population, but only about one-fourth of the land area. Most of the system is confined between Main St. and S. W. 10th or 12th St. between Avenue A and E although sewerage treatment plant is located

It's Possible

South Bay Council Will Consider Way Out Of PB Port Tax District

South Bay Councilmen Thursday approved their 1959-60 tax roll, certified the revaluation of real and personal property and heard that a firm of investors might be interested in financing a bond issue to help build a water treatment plant for the city. It was also the first meeting for the city's recently-employed city manager who began work this week. Stalling as a board of equalization for the city's property revaluation by Himmelfarb & Associates, the council heard C. E. Crichfield attack the values and state that he wasn't in favor of the valuation if the county tax assessor were allowed to use them for county taxes. Crichfield also charged that the council should get the city relieved from the Port of Palm Beach district since the city has no port and derives no benefit from the Port of Palm Beach.

Councilman R. R. Roadman was appointed to get information about relieving the city's tax burden. It's possible Port of Palm Beach Traffic Manager Joel Wilcox told The Herald Tuesday that it was possible to get South Bay out of the district since values were so much higher and bond holders would not object to cutting out such a small portion of the district. Wilcox said it would take an act of the state legislature to amend the boundary lines of the tax district.

Asked by The Herald what benefit South Bay received from the tax burden, Wilcox said that theoretically the city helped pay for deepening of the city's channel recently. When it was apparent that large freight carriers would be entering the port, an over-night freighter for rail shipments of vegetables resulted.

Wilcox went on to say that money would be spent to enlarge the Belle Glade port and extend an opportunity for fertilizers to be shipped to the area at a considerable saving which would benefit South Bay. (Continued On Page Eight)

Two Qualify For South Bay Posts

South Bay Police Chief Marvin Davis became the city's first candidate to qualify for the Oct. 6 municipal election; however, he was not alone this week in the political picture as Henry Elfers rushed to qualify in Group I to retain his seat on the city council.

Under a new charter change this year for the first time, the police chief's election will be slightly different. He must receive a majority of those voting, not just the largest number of votes.

Councilmen will be qualifying the groups this year instead of letting the top vote getters win regardless of majority.

Teen Town Facing Possible Closing

Teenagers going out of the city to attend dances when similar recreation is available at Belle Glade was attacked by Mayor McWhorter speaking for Teen Town, Inc., officials who were becoming deeply concerned over the lack of interest in Teen Town activities.

Mrs. McWhorter told The Herald that the teen facility was developed to keep the youngsters off the roads during the weekends and to give them something to do at home.

She said the Pahokee Youth Center had been circulating posters around the city, and she said the teens were going to Pahokee. She went on to say that a slump in attendance would cause the closing of Teen Town Friday night and probably Saturday night, too.

If more teenagers didn't start attending their own recreation center, she said, the city would have to support their own teen facility.

Petition Pleads Parking Revision On W. Avenue A

Belle Glade Commissioners Wednesday night were asked to change the parallel parking law on W. Avenue A to permit angular parking again on one side of the street. A petition signed by 36 persons claimed itself the "almost unanimous voice of the merchants."

The petition said that 70% of their business was with women drivers who couldn't parallel park. Some of the signatures were business firms which do not rely on "walk-in and drive-in business" as claimed in the petition and letter.

Commissioners were unanimous in their remarks that all they had heard until the petition came up was favorable comment on how well the traffic plan was working. They tabled the action for further study to determine which side of the street should be made available for angular parking.

N. B. Willis and Andrew Malo appeared to seek relief from another facet of the city's traffic-parking problem. They said they both had buildings on the drawing boards when the city's off-street parking rules went in to effect and that some relief was needed.

Five Qualify To Enter B.G. Municipal Election Races

West Borough City Commissioner Paul Davidson is unopposed in his bid for re-election at the September municipal election, according to City Clerk Frank C. Anderson who made the announcement at the close of the qualifying period at 4:30 yesterday afternoon. Davidson becomes the fourth candidate since 1949 to enter a municipal election unopposed.

In North Borough's qualifying positions are ex-commissioner H. O. "Cocky" Carlton, who served two terms, and Clyde "Racy" Parrish, who tried unsuccessfully eight years ago for a council seat.

Central Borough's opponents will be incumbent Z. T. Ingram seeking his fourth term on the council and F. C. Markham, owner of Markham's Appliance and a cattleman who has never held a municipal office.

The North Borough incumbent, Mayor R. W. Lanier, indicated he would not seek re-election. The Herald learned that Carlton's qualification Tuesday caused at least one intended candidate to junk his plans to seek a council seat.

Other councilmen whose terms expire next year are Central Borough representative, William Harris, and the other North Borough councilman, William Evans.

Candidates made no political statements to The Herald.

Those who entered a council race unopposed since 1949 were Junior Harris in 1949, Harold Rabin in 1954, and William Evans in 1958. All were subsequently elected mayor.

Duda Extension Closer

Rights-of-way needed for the construction of Duda Road extension have been cleared with the last remaining property owner according to County Commissioner Paul Rardin, and work could begin in the next 30 days, he said.

Rock put up by Wedgworth Farm Co. has been paid for by the county, Rardin said only small details remained in the completion of right-of-way agreement before the work could begin.

Opening Of Schools Is Accented By Changes In Policies And Regulations

Pre-school sessions for teachers began Aug. 24 with meetings at the various schools. They have been at work all week and several more sessions remain on their crowded calendar before they appear Sept. 1 to register their students.

Educators, selected teachers and other speakers have conducted workshops dealing with educational problems to improve their approaches to education this year.

Regular sessions of school staffs began Sept. 3. Several changes from last year were announced this summer by the school board, and these policies have been passed on to the principals for enforcement. Since they all affect each student who attends school in one way or another, brief summaries of the new policies and programs are outlined below. Further information is available from school boards, head teachers or the county.

Information for the following was supplied by Howell Watkins, Superintendent of Public Instruction in a special release to The Herald.

Clothing
Pupils in all schools are encouraged to give attention to their appearance, the board policy states. In the junior and senior high schools, the girls will not wear slacks, jeans, shorts, pedalpushers, etc., sun-buck dresses, off-the-shoulder dresses, head kerchiefs or hair curlers to school. Tight blouses, skirts, or dresses are not considered appropriate.

Boys should wear belts at the waistline with shirt tails tucked in and buttoned to a refined neck level. Jeans may be worn if they are clean and neat but not tight. Shorts or any of trousers that are not considered the conventional type are not to be worn. Heavy boots and shoes with cleats are not to be worn.

Smallpox Evidence of vaccination within the past three years is required.

Police Must have evidence of at least the first shot in a series. Four are now recommended.

Diphtheria Must have evidence of at least the first of two-shot series.

Acceptable proof shall be a note or certificate from a licensed physician or county health department. If immunization is contrary to religious belief; note from a minister of that faith shall be required, stating that exception should be allowed for that reason. (Continued On Page 7)

It's Been A Big Time-Saver

Our Glades Office Building Nears Its Anniversary

Palm Beach County Glades Office Building will be one year old Aug. 31, for it was officially dedicated on that date in 1958 and opened for business Sept. 2. Since that time it has provided a vital group of services to Glades residents as well as placed a number of other conveniences at the disposal of county authorities.

Use of the building was encouraging. It would be impossible to say exactly how many miles have been saved by eliminating the necessity of many 100-mile plus trips to West Palm Beach, the county seat. Greater use of the structure is being planned. A $40,000 addition was approved for the $118,000 building a good while before it was a year old.

The County Commission appointed Mrs. Mac Pope, who had been associated with the Pahokee Chamber of Commerce, as office manager whose responsibility it would be to keep the office running smoothly at top efficiency. She has coordinated the meetings which have been held there, and she has also served as a liaison between the public and the county officials who services are in demand.

"The public seems to be appreciative of the fact that these facilities are here," Mrs. Pope commented to The Herald. Proof of that appreciation is readily available by checking the various offices and services represented at the building.

Circuit Court Clerk
Mrs. Pope is a trained deputy clerk for the purpose of handling papers and business for the Circuit Court as well as the Supervisor of Registration. She also represents the County legal transactions for the Circuit Court Judge and sells state and federal documentary stamps.

One can register to vote, obtain drivers', fishing and hunting licenses and file an affidavit which the county clerk's office handles, apply for the use of a fictitious name and obtain declaration of domicile of citizens through Mrs. Pope.

Mrs. Pope has handled 227 cases in the city hall before. The office is functioning more efficiently. There are five deputies, Bobby Newman, Frank Prewitt, Frank O'Connell, Gibb Gross and Louise Stroble, the clerk at the new office. By next October a stenographer will be assigned to the office to help process the work.

Sherriff's Dept.
With central control of the sheriff's Glades deputies and a 24-hour radio station, the department is functioning more efficiently. There are five deputies, Bobby Newman, Frank Prewitt, Frank O'Connell, Gibb Gross and Louise Stroble, the clerk at the new office. By next October a stenographer will be assigned to the office to help process the work.

Fire Dept.
The fire department is functioning more efficiently. There are five deputies, Bobby Newman, Frank Prewitt, Frank O'Connell, Gibb Gross and Louise Stroble, the clerk at the new office. By next October a stenographer will be assigned to the office to help process the work.

AT THE INTERSECTION OF SR 15 and Highway 19 just north of Belle Glade stands the Glades Office Building, just one year old Sept. 2. Its official opening date, since its doors opened for business, countless miles and hours have been saved when a person got his services in the Glades instead of going to the coast. Seen at left is caretaker's house. South of the office building (look back toward top of picture) is the road and bridge district here where the Everglades Fire Control headquarters and the Federal State Market Inspection Bureau building at extreme top right.

Chamber Primping For Boat Clubs

Port Committee of the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce has made big plans for the Lab. or Day weekend as they are expected to be the first of the Palm Beaches Sept. 5, states the latest issue of "Chamber Matter," published organ of the Belle Glade C. of C.

A group of Boy Scouts will be on hand to give out greetings from the city upon their arrival at the port, they will be served refreshments before embarking on their trip to Ft. McF.

After returning to Belle Glade on Labor Day, they'll have an opportunity to enjoy barbecue served by Everglades American Legion Post 20.

This week's issue of the chamber also welcomes at least 45 new residents who have moved into the city during the past two weeks. Also, the paper calls attention to a new business along Main St. and Ave. A.

Belle Glade films were shown in Soledad, Calif., and Flint, Michigan last month. The latter subject films are available for distribution to clubs, theaters and TV stations.

John Frazier Newton Laid To Rest At Foreverglades Mausoleum Gardens

John F. Newton, veteran printer who joined The Herald staff when it first went into business 19 years ago, became the first person to be laid to rest in Foreverglades Mausoleum Gardens with services conducted Wednesday by the Reverend Edwin M. Strasser, pastor of Northside Baptist Church.

Mr. Newton, who died May 28, worked until his retirement in 1948. He had been employed at Ft. Lauderdale pending completion of the initial phase of construction of the 38-unit building at Foreverglades on Airport Road.

Funeral services were held May 30 at Williams-Wetherington Chapel conducted by Dr. J. Leighton Scott.

Miller Replaced As Administrator At BG Memorial

FLOYD MILLER, Jr., who resigned as Belle Glade Memorial Hospital Administrator, has been credited with improving the hospital and bringing its needs before the community.

Belle Glade Memorial Hospital Superintendent Floyd Miller, Jr., who has been highly praised by the public and hospital board during his tenure as administrator, has been replaced effective Aug. 19. Samuel Ellis, Miller's assistant and Board Chairman Herbert Beck, Wednesday morning Miller was handed a letter by Ellis which expressed the acceptance of Miller's resignation.

A special meeting was held Aug. 18 to consider Miller's position, according to Hospital Board Chairman Herbert Beck. Wednesday morning Miller was handed a letter by Ellis which expressed the acceptance of Miller's resignation.

"Little Courthouse" One Year Old

Within the next week Glades folks will have the opportunity to observe a special anniversary: The Glades Office Building, the "little courthouse," will be one year old Aug. 31. It officially opened for business Sept. 2.

The creation of the sub courthouse to serve western Palm Beach County is the reality which a lot of people thought was only a dream. Legislators at one time argued that it couldn't be done. Others argued that it wasn't needed.

The Herald's voice was one of those which proclaimed that it COULD be done. The Herald said legal transactions and court hearings could be held away from the county seat when distance and expediency merited the action.

The road to reality wasn't a paved boulevard by any means. There had to be arguments about where the building should be located, there had to be special action in our state's legislature. It all fell into place.

As the Glades Office Building becomes one year old, two facts are significantly outstanding: 1. Special court hearings are already being held in the structure with a small claims-court setting in October. 2. The building has been found to be so useful that it is being considered for expansion.

In less than one year the Glades Office Building proved that a number of services were being provided to the people without a long trip to the coast. It proved itself a good investment.

Beneficial - More Ways Than One

The City of Belle Glade expects to put its newly-finished sewage treatment plant into operation on Sept. 1, less than a week away. It's been a long time coming.

Belle Glade is one of the last cities of its size in the state to have a sewerage system. It's also unique in that our city's system is the first built in muck soil.

Aside from the fact that the plant is a modern trend, two principal benefits will be realized from the treatment plant and its system, and one of those is from the standpoint of waterborne disease protection.

With a major portion of the septic tank menace out of the way, typhoid and amoebic dysentery outbreaks are less serious possibilities in our thickly-populated sections. A second benefit—almost certainly—will be the growth potential of our area with an operating sewage treatment plant. Large industry will be able to exist more practically in or near Belle Glade.

Already the Glades State Prison Farm has made an arrangement to hook up to our system at a substantial savings to the state. Other large factories or, more probably, housing developments could connect to our existing sewerage instead of installing septic tanks or their own sewage treatment facilities.

The Herald congratulates the many minds which led to this final point. Our city councilmen, who last year in October ordered construction, the engineers who kept tabs on the technical end of the operation and advised on financial practicability and the host of others who sped the city toward its modern system of sewage treatment are all to be thanked for their effort.

Uncle Dan From Democrat River Says

Dear Mister Editor:

We had a right legging session at the country store Saturday night on account of the subject under discussion being preachers. As usual, Ed Doughty, the Baptist, was the one who was talking.

Ed is a Baptist but says he doesn't know exactly what branch it is. All he knows is that they put 'em plum under water when they're baptized. Ed says that's the only kind to belong to, says when you want to seal a hog you throw him in the vat. You throw him in the vat. That brings up a argument from the feller that belongs to other creeds. Variety, that's what Ed says his preacher has got someone to interest the whole congregation. He'll talk about gangsters, the United Nations, women, liquor, Congress, the drought, Russia and the high cost of living, all in the same sermon. Ed says when the weather gets real hot he's liable to discuss all these things in the same sentence.

Sunday for instance, he went from women to fishing and from there to fried chicken. He said when he was a boy a girl blushed when she heard a naughty joke but now she just remembers it. He allowed as how women was going to perdition faster'n the country was going broke. He said proof that we was reaching the living end come from the fact that they passed the other day who said she'd been married five times and that three of them was perfect and two was ideal.

On the subject of fishing, the preacher claimed the Government was mighty hard up for comecan, to do what they passed laws protecting fish. He allowed that all the high head ever saw was able to look out for themselves.

On the topic of fried chicken, Ed's preacher said he'd like to put a stop to the rumor that preachers didn't like nothing but chicken. That was the case, he allowed, back when chicken was scarce, back in the depression when it was dangerous for a chicken to crow out loud. Now, he claims, even Methodist preachers can get all the chicken they want. Ed says that from the little remarks his preacher drops, he figures he don't like Methodists. On account of my old lady being a Methodist, I got to go hear that feller real soon and get both sides of it.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

Costs City Clerk Frank C. Anderson said figures on construction and handling of the sewer were not complete; however, some of the picture could be seen by looking at available figures.

Of the total cost of the system, the federal government grant will amount to about $130,000 leaving approximately $600,000 to be repaid in the form of 35-year sewer revenue bonds. This will amount to between $35,000 and $38,000 per year.

Estimated income from the plant is between $54,000 and $58,000 annually with operational expenses estimated at $16,000 to $18,000 per year. While the operation will be close, more users are expected to come under the system in the near future thus swelling the revenue funds.

The treatment plant's approximate cost is $237,532; the system, that is, the mains, manholes and force mains, will cost $288,015.90 and the lift stations (3) $104,949. Contingency funds, fiscal, legal and engineering fees make up the remaining amounts. The government grant

Fruit Workers' Plight Inspires Girl To Life In Church Mission Work

Editor's note: Following is an article which appeared in the Greenville (S. C.) News concerning Diane Griffin, daughter of Rev. W. H. Griffin, pastor of Belle Glade Baptist Church. The article was written by Gil Rowland of that publication's staff.

By Gil Rowland

As one of 400 Southern Baptist college students in summer mission work, Diane Griffin had a chance this summer to try her hand at something she became interested in at the age of 13 — helping the underprivileged.

She became concerned about migrant vegetable and fruit workers in Belle Glade, Fla., while her father was pastor at the First Baptist Church there prior to 1951.

In 1951, Wade H. Griffin moved to Greenville as pastor of Berea Baptist Church, she kept the idea of Christian service before her as she finished high school at the former North Greenville Academy, finished two years work at North Green, S. C.

After receiving her diploma last spring, the 21-year-old girl went to Baltimore, Md., where she spent 10 weeks in the Baltimore Good-Will Center operated by the Southern Baptist lists.

At the Center she saw a depressing picture of people she believed miserable because of liquor, broken homes, lack of religion, absence of spiritual facilities for wholesome recreation, and other causes.

She plans to teach third grade in the Dalton, Ga., schools this year, and possibly the year following. Then she plans to study for several years at the Carver School of Missions at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky.

Then she hopes to make some phase of home missions her life work. The migrant workers' dirty shacks, poverty and illigible way of life impressed Diane deeply in Belle Glade. But it became a more personal matter.

pays about 30% of the plant and system costs.

About The System. System 12 (roughly the area from Main St. to 5th St.) has 10,535 feet of mains and laterals, just short of two miles. System 14 has 12,705 feet of mains and laterals, or about 1.4 miles of pipe.

Lateral lines collect from houses and flow to mains, which are gravity lines. The mains take the flow to pressure lines called force mains which carry the sewage to the treatment plant. All pumps and equipment of the system are designed so that they can't be "over-worked."

Last Story Hour At City Library

Hello Boys and Girls! The last story hour of the summer at the Belle Glade City Library will be held Saturday a. m. It is hoped a goodly number will be present. Pat Fishler has a new little friend who will visit you Saturday during the story hour. This new fellow is soft and furry and has a sharp pointed nose, black shoebutton eyes, a saucy face and a short tail that he wags like mad—his name is "Rascal" and he is one too—What an adorable rascal and as mischievous as his name. Can you guess what kind of an animal this is? He is making his home with Pat and her brother and sister.

Pat has several stories to read you about animals just like Rascal that you will want to hear.

Churches of Christ Scientist

Christ Jesus' triumphant over material laws of limitation established the supremacy of God's unchangeable law. This is a theme to be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus." Included in the Bible references to be read is the account in John (6) of Jesus' feeding of five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following will be read (23:21-26): "God never ordained a material law to annul the spiritual law. If there were such a material law, it would oppose the supremacy of Spirit, God, and impugn the wisdom of the creator. Jesus walked on the waves, fed the multitude, healed the sick, and raised the dead in direct opposition to material laws."

The Golden Text is from John 3:16: "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Sincerity is the highest complement you can pay. —Ralph Waldo Emerson that you've given your family everything loving care and foresight can provide, except this one thing?

Isn't it true....

You've given your loved ones every luxury you can afford. You've sought to shield them against any and all of life's hardships and misfortunes. You've made a will... and taken out life insurance to protect them should anything happen to you.

But have you taken the one step to make sure that, should you be taken from your family, your wife and children will not be faced with one of life's grimmest and most distressing tasks, ... the selection of an interment place?

Death brings shock and devastating grief that unfits even the strongest man or woman for the painful, yet necessary, decisions and arrangements that must be made. Worse... it brings such a paralyzing sense of helplessness and hopelessness, it's impossible to make calm, wise business decisions.

Remember there are only two ways to arrange for this inevitable necessity — ONE when you're healthy and happy and you and your wife can make the selection together as you have made so many of life's important decisions — THE OTHER, to wait until and emergency strikes, and leaves the decisions to your wife — (this happens in about two out of three cases) on the worst and loneliest day of her life, when she is so emotionally upset and overcome with grief she cannot even think straight.

When this happens, she has no other alternative than to make an immediate decision — is, in fact, forced by circumstances, to take what is offered and pay the price asked.

Hats off to the Florida Farmer and to the County Agent who is helpful in so many ways. Backing them up is Reddy Kilowatt—"wired helper" who has freed the farmer from drudgery and lightened the burden of housework for the farmer's wife.

Rams Are Looking Better This Year

After two years in the Suncoast Conference cellar, the Rams might well take their place at the top of the heap, according to Football Coach Jim Maynoe, who commented on the team which began practice Aug. 17.

The squad of 33 consists of 15 lettermen, six of which are in the backfield. The team will average from ten to 15 pounds more per boy than last year's squad, Maynoe said.

Let by All-Suncoast Conference Back John David Chamberle, the letterman backfield will be made up of Tim Bass, Charles Lutz, Roger Walker, Claude Robertson and Doug Sands.

Others may be assigned to the letterman on the line include Captain Butch Buss; and honorable mention All-Suncoast Conference Center, Gary Norman. Others are Russell Barry, Butch Davis, Dan Hayes, Ronald Hudephert, James Martin, Kenneth Martin and Sidney Pearce.

Two-a-day workouts will continue through Sept. 2 and will be cut to once-a-day after the start of school.

Season tickets will go on sale shortly for the six home games. People are invited to purchase them and support the Golden Rams. Those who purchase the tickets can be assigned to the letterman in the backfield. High School play one of the toughest schedules of any small high school in the state this year.

Our Glades Office (Continued from Page One) A corps of three dispatchers and one relief worker use the radio system of two frequencies in addition to the Connel frequency. Two road patrolmen are on duty which is expected to withstand a 150-mph wind.

Tax Collector Mrs. Edwin C. Young, formerly with the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce, has been trained to carry out the duties of the tax collector in the Glades. Her office has handled approximately 9,000 tag sales through July 31 and more than a quarter of a million dollars in taxes collected.

More Space According to County Commissioner Paul H. Canale, a pencil sketch of the building's $40,000 addition will be reviewed by the county engineer and county board sometime this week and construction is planned for the first of the year.

Englarging the county agent's office, tax collector's space and creation of a courtroom are definite on the sketches, he said.

Pioneer Growers Covered

Pioneer Growers Cooperative at Belle Glade has been the subject of an article in The American Mercury and has been condensed in the September issue of The Reader's Digest.

Written by Henry La Cossette, the article explains the complicated radio technique in the harvesting and selling of produce. The article says in part:

"With a radio set resembling that of an Air Force nerve center, this unusual coop brings assembly-line efficiency to the business of growing vegetables."

Title of the article is "Florida's Fabulous 'Electronic Farms.' It's interesting."

Cattle Prices Are Somewhat Lower

Monday's Glades Livestock Market sale was the second largest money sale in the past 30 days, and 618 cattle returned $72,124.71. Most of the offerings (72%) went to stocker buyers as prices were steady to lower over the previous week.

Only stocker steers were 25 to 50 cents higher than the Aug. 17 sale. Slaughter steers sold steady, calves $2-3.00 lower, cows $1-1.50 lower, bulls 50 cents to $1 lower. Stocker heifers were 50-75 cents lower, calves $2-3.00 lower, cows steady to $1 lower.

Slaughter steers ranged $18.75 to $23.25; calves $26.50-26.75; cows $12.50-$20.00, bulls $14.00-21.75.

Heifers none. Stocker cattle sold $15.00-27.50 for steers; heifers $17.35-23.00; calves $10.00-27.00; cows $12.00-20.50, bulls $19.00-23.00. Dairy cows sold $15.90-19.50.

Thirty percent of the run was cows and 43% of them sold for slaughter.

Western Dance Exhibition Monday

Everyone interested in Western Style Square dancing is invited to attend an exhibition dance at the Belle Glade County Club Monday night August 31 at 8 o'clock. There will be no charge for spectators and refreshments will be served.

The purpose of this free exhibition dance is to interest enough people so that a class can be organized and Western style square dancing can be taught by a dance instructor.

There are numerous clubs on the East coast also in Ft. Myers and Clearwater, where there is a large club. The dances are shown on the Red Foley show on TV.

Tentative plans for the classes when organized will include a dance instructor in charge, caller from West Palm Beach, meet once a week, 12 weeks course. No alcoholic beverages are permitted at the dancing classes.

Six couples in the community will put on the exhibition.

Public relations is the most dynamic force in industry today, but industry does not know how to use it. — Bernard Reilly

South University Facts And Figures Told Rotarians By Friday's Guest

A major university is coming to Palm Beach County and southeast Florida because of the initiative, industry and the ability of a group of public spirited citizens to take full advantage of circumstances—welding facts, land and facilities into a finished product.

A deed to 1,000 acres formerly used as an airport at Boca Raton has been accepted by the Board of Control, with an addition of 40 acres coming to the expiration of an existing lease.

In addition to roads, streets, sewer system, water system and public utilities, there is a 200-acre aviation field which must be maintained as an emergency field and which may be used by the university in its teaching of aviation.

The Ford Foundation has donated some $75,000 to date to go with $50,000 appropriated by the immediate past legislature for study and planning for the university, which will be a part of the state's university system.

The foremost students and designers of college curriculum and facilities are at work to make this university the most modern in the world in its offerings to the pupil and the accomplishment of courses of study.

The story of activity which brought the status of the university to its present favorable stage was told to Rotarians Friday by Harold Dane, Councilman and former Mayor of Boca Raton. Mr. Dane, as mayor and one of the leading proponents has been a member of a five man committee from the county which has been active to date.

The story is as fabulous in accomplishment as you might expect from the East Coast of Florida.

Mr. Dane emphasized the great advantage to this area as the privilege of some thousands of high school students who will be able to "go to college" right at home, both in saving of time and in savings to Dad's pocketbook.

The economic advantage to the area — Dade, Broward and Palm Beach County — is estimated in the millions — some seventy, as a matter of fact, in cash coin of the realm.

It is modestly estimated that each student will account for $1,000 in cash per year; each family supporting a student in school and living in the area has an average annual income of $8,000, and each day student will leave $400 per year for needs.

In '70, it is estimated, there will be 12,000 students at $1,000 $12,000,000.

7,000 families at $8,000 $56,000,000.

100,000 day students at $400 $40,000,000.

2,400,000 — $70,000,000.

In these tanks 45% of the solids are removed from the water. The remaining matter is pumped to the 55,525 gallon aeration tanks for a stay of ten hours.

After more solids are removed from the water, the water passes into final tanks where it is chlorinated and final 15% of the solids are removed. Chlorination is from 3 parts per million to 1 ppm. Water is then pumped into the nearby Hillsborough Canal.

Moon said 99% of the waste is removed and the other 1% neutralized by the chlorine. The wastes which were removed from the three tank processes moves to the digester where it undergoes chemical change and is reduced in volume. The final product is a solid and liquid which can be used as a fertilizer or can be hauled away to be dumped. The volume of waste, Moon said is one percent of one percent of the amount which entered the plant.

Testing, as required by the State Board of Health, makes certain the plant is operating correctly. The tests reveal the
